

GUNCONTROLTODAY

— JOIN THE MARCH —

For Immediate Release

Contact: John Phelps
(910) 547-5735

guncontrolday@gmail.com

North Carolina Man Organizes 300-Mile March in Call for Gun Reform

WILMINGTON, N.C. (May 7, 2013) – Grassroots group Gun Control Today (GCT) announces a protest march to Washington, D.C. beginning in Newtown, CT on May 18. GCT founder John Phelps released this statement:

“The tragedy at Sandy Hook Elementary School compels each of us to demand stricter gun control legislation. Everyone in our nation feels the pain of this massacre, and should demand that Congress pass responsible, reasonable gun control laws. Our march is a response to Congress’s failure to act regardless of the majority of Americans who favor stronger gun control legislation. We encourage participants to join the march at any point along the route, and for any distance that suits them. Make your voice heard!”

GCT will begin its 10-day march on May 18 at 8 a.m. near the Sandy Hook Elementary School in Newtown, CT and will pass through New York City on May 20, Philadelphia on May 23, and Baltimore on May 26, ending at the Capitol Building in Washington D.C. on May 27. Participants will meet with Margaret Lawrynovicz, firearms staffer for Senator Kay Hagan, on May 28.

For more information on GCT and the march, visit GunControlToday.org

